

Landa Shaw
Senior Vice President
North Dallas Bank & Trust, Co.

Landa Shaw is Senior Vice President for North Dallas Bank & Trust Co., the oldest independent bank native to Dallas. Landa's career in community banking spans a period of over 34 years with the last 28 years proudly serving as North Dallas Bank's Business Development Officer. Her experience in the banking industry has provided her the opportunity to know and work with some of the top businesses in Dallas and to develop life-long personal relationships with her clients.

In addition to her responsibilities toward bringing new business to the bank, Landa is active in the community, working with schools, churches and various nonprofits in the Dallas area.

Before her election to Board of the North Dallas Chamber of Commerce in 2016, Landa served three consecutive terms as Co-Chairman for the NDCC Ambassador's Committee working with new members and to improve membership retention.

Children hold a special place in her heart. Through her leadership, starting in 1989 with the DISD Adopt-A-School program, Landa launched a 28 year relationship with Arthur Kramer Elementary School, earning her the prestigious award as Lifetime PTA Member. Those educational programs have evolved over the years and have resulted most recently in the sponsorship of a Financial Literacy Program for elementary students. She is also a volunteer for Family Gateway, an organization whose mission is to end child homelessness in Dallas, providing food, shelter, job skill training and education for families in need .Her participation helped Family Gateway name North Dallas Bank as "Company of the Year 2015."

Hobbies and areas of interest for Landa and her husband Jim include music, dancing, home improvement projects, and all spectator sports, especially college football. Their lives are very busy and filled with activities surrounding their children and beautiful grandchildren.
